WPBL 2026 SEASON
MEDIA ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES

Requests

- Media may only enter a venue to attend practices, games, and/or other related media access periods or events hosted by the WPBL.

- All Media credentials must be requested as soon as possible before a WPBL or team event, but no later than 24 hours prior such event. Late applications may not be considered.

- Space in media areas at Robin Roberts Stadium is limited. Therefore, each outlet and assigned Media members requesting access will be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to the sole discretion of the WPBL.

- "Media" consists of the following working professionals affiliated with recognized media organizations: writers, photographers, videographers, podcasters, radio and television reporters/correspondents and their crews and digital content creators.

- All Media members must request interviews in advance for players, coaches, managers, WPBL spokespersons or anyone else affiliated with the WPBL by contacting the Media Relations team at media@womensprobaseball.com.

Applicable Rules
Each accredited Media agrees to be bound by the terms set forth on their credential and agrees to comply with the following:

Credential Usage and Access:
- Media are required to wear their credential at all times while in the teams' facilities, at the game venue or at any other formal, scheduled interaction with WPBL and teams' personnel and players.
- Credentials are non-transferable.
- Media shall at all times act respectfully, in a professional manner and comply with the WPBL's rules, regulations and policies.
- Media attending practices, games, and/or other baseball-related media access periods or events hosted by the WPBL shall be serving in a working capacity for the sole purpose of covering such game, practice, or event. Media shall only access those areas of a venue accessible with their credential.

3. Credential Review:
The WPBL and its Teams reserve the right to address non-compliance with its rules and policies by Media members, including, if necessary, ejection from the arena/venue, revoking of credentials, denial of access to future WPBL events and instituting legal action. Reasons may include, but are not limited to:
- Violation of these Media Accreditation Guidelines.
- Failure to act in a professional manner towards other media members, fans, or arena staff.
- Asking for autographs or personal photos of players or coaches.
- Conducting unauthorized interviews.

- Wearing player jerseys, team-branded fan apparel, or anything that creates the appearance of being a fan
- Using a credential issued to another individual.
- Copying, duplicating or otherwise reproducing or distributing a credential or its image in any manner, in whole or in part. This includes posting photos of credentials.
- Unprofessional behavior, such as encroachment into restricted areas, cheering in the press box, working while consuming or under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs, asking inappropriate questions unrelated to sports or the event, escorting unaccredited third parties to media areas, failure to abide by posted rules.

The WPBL reserves the right to review these Media Accreditation Guidelines as necessary from time to time.
